

Bringing Families Together on the Topic of Transgender Youth

DOES YOUR TEEN IDENTIFY AS TRANSGENDER?
DO THE BOXES "MALE" AND "FEMALE" SEEM TOO NARROW FOR YOUR TEEN?
DOES YOUR YOUNG ADULT QUESTION THEIR GENDER?

If so, you are not alone. Join us for an evening of information where you will have the opportunity to connect with other parents/guardians in your community.

Date: March 30th

Time: 7-9pm

Cost: FREE!

Location: Fisherman's Cove Heritage Centre
4 Government Wharf Rd, Eastern Passage

Hear presenters speak on the following topics...

The Youth Project services
IWK transgender team
Gender creative youth at school
A mother shares her story

Parents/guardians living anywhere in Nova Scotia are welcome. Note: this session is for the adults only, not for youth or younger children. Child care is not available on site. This information session is aimed at parents/guardians of Junior High and High School aged students. Parents/guardians, you can bring a friend with you if you wish.

If you require further information, please contact Kim at (902) 465-1888

Thank-you to Fisherman's Cove Heritage Centre for the donation of space for this event
